

Corn Da Barber

Master Barber | Image Consultant | Educator | Entrepreneur

Corn Da Barber (Born Cornelius J. Bell) is a Cincinnati-native. He attended Withrow High School and has had over 20+ years of interpersonal experiences and relationship building opportunities. Corn started cutting hair in 1992, giving him a grand total 26 years of hair cutting experience. Some of Corn's first clients include family and friends from the neighborhood that he grew up in.

Corn is the owner and operator of his barbering and image consulting company "Corn Cuttz", which has legally been established since 2003. Corn Cuttz is currently located at 6050 Montgomery Road, Loft 3 in Cincinnati, OH for more information be sure to visit www.corncuttz.com.

Corn has a very personal, relationship-based approach to barbering and image consulting.

Corn is in the business of uplifting others by enhancing what is there and teaching people healthy hair habits. The personal and business mantra that Corn Da Barber stands by is "When You Look Good, You Feel Good."